In the vanguard

Special Economic Zone opening up market of 30 million people

Investors from China, Korea, Macau, Portugal, Brazil, Indonesia, Malaysia and Singapore are in various stages of project negotiations, contracts and implementation.

About the SEZ

The SEZ in Oceania (SEZ) is a Special Economic Zone (SEZ) in the Republic of Timor-Leste. It is located in the District of Baucau, in the municipality of Baucau, and covers an area of 2,800 hectares. The zone is divided into two phases: Phase 1 and Phase 2. Phase 1 consists of 1,400 hectares and Phase 2 consists of 1,400 hectares. The zone is expected to generate employment opportunities for over 10,000 people and is projected to contribute significantly to the economic development of the region.

Regional hub

The SEZ offers various incentives to attract investors, including tax holidays, duty-free imports, and access to a skilled workforce. The zone is also located near major ports and airports, making it an ideal location for businesses. The SEZ is committed to creating a business-friendly environment and has established partnerships with international organizations to provide support and guidance to investors.

21st century state with old-world vibes

The SEZ in Oceania is a unique and exciting destination for investors, offering a modern infrastructure and a welcoming community. The zone is focused on creating a business-friendly environment and is committed to providing excellent services to its clients. With its strategic location and attractive incentives, the SEZ in Oceania is poised to become a major player in the global business landscape.

---

A closer look at the SEZ in Oceania

About the SEZ in Oceania

The SEZ in Oceania is a Special Economic Zone located in the Republic of Timor-Leste. It is a hub for investment and economic development, offering various incentives and advantages to businesses. The zone is divided into two phases: Phase 1 and Phase 2. Phase 1 consists of 1,400 hectares and Phase 2 consists of 1,400 hectares. The zone is expected to generate employment opportunities for over 10,000 people and is projected to contribute significantly to the economic development of the region.

Regional hub

The SEZ offers various incentives to attract investors, including tax holidays, duty-free imports, and access to a skilled workforce. The zone is also located near major ports and airports, making it an ideal location for businesses. The SEZ is committed to creating a business-friendly environment and has established partnerships with international organizations to provide support and guidance to investors.

21st century state with old-world vibes

The SEZ in Oceania is a unique and exciting destination for investors, offering a modern infrastructure and a welcoming community. The zone is focused on creating a business-friendly environment and is committed to providing excellent services to its clients. With its strategic location and attractive incentives, the SEZ in Oceania is poised to become a major player in the global business landscape.

---

Artwork by Dr. Ralph Horvath

Dr. Ralph Horvath is a renowned artist known for his detailed and realistic depictions of the natural world. His artwork is widely recognized for its accuracy and beauty, and his pieces are often featured in galleries and exhibitions around the world. Horvath's expertise in depicting the natural world has earned him a reputation as a master of his craft, and his work continues to inspire and delight art lovers around the globe.